Construction Systems Inc. Promotes Michael Colucy to Specialties Division Coordinator

COLUMBUS, Ohio – January 8, 2008 – Construction Systems Inc. (CSI) has promoted Michael Colucy to Specialties Division Coordinator.

In his new position, Colucy will be responsible for scheduling jobs, manpower and deliveries; ordering materials and maintaining stock; ensuring that timely field measurements are completed; preparing billings; and providing support for CSI's Specialties Division field crews.

JD Flaherty, Jr., President of CSI, says, "Mike has consistently delivered outstanding service to CSI's Specialties Division clients. His management and support of our field crews will ensure that CSI continues to meet our clients' needs and exceed their expectations."

Colucy joined CSI as a carpenter in 1994 and was promoted to Foreman in 2000. Mike has 17 years of experience in the construction industry. His construction-related training includes OSHA safety training, Infectious Disease Training, and management training courses from the Builders Exchange.
