Carl Granzow
*Estimator &
Project Manager*

Responsibilities and Areas of Expertise

As estimator and project manager for Construction Systems Inc. (CSI), Carl is responsible for proposal preparation, sales, project oversight, client service and job billing. He has grown with the business over the past 22 years and has worked in most positions and divisions.

Carl's knowledge of products and materials of CSI trades is vast, and his responsiveness, his attention to detail and his highly organized approach is valued greatly by both CSI employees and clients. Carl also has considerable knowledge and expertise with doors, frames and hardware.

Carl's strong client relationships and can-do attitude contributes to the team's ability to provide continuous high-quality construction services year after year. In fact, many times, CSI can fast track a project with the design/build approach, saving up-front time and streamlining the overall construction process.
