Zachary Poczik Joins Construction Systems Inc. as Assistant Project Manager and Estimator Intern

COLUMBUS, Ohio – July 2, 2008 – Construction Systems Inc. recently hired Zachary Poczik as an assistant project manager and estimator intern in the facilities division.

Poczik will be responsible for assisting project managers with determining project elements, material specifications, establishing project budgets, as well as tracking material orders and scheduling. He will focus on the Donatos Refresh Program projects this summer, as well as others.

“After three years as a laborer we are excited to see Zach transition to a full time internship with the project management team. We are pleased Zach has chosen to work at CSI and continue to assist in the growth of the facilities division”, said JD Flaherty, Jr., President of CSI.

Poczik attends Columbus State Community College and will be completing his bachelor’s degree at The Ohio State University in Construction Systems Management. While attending Columbus State Community College Poczik received the Lincoln Construction Scholarship for his dedicated commitment to the profession of construction management.

About Construction Systems Inc.
